

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Town Hall

When: January 24th, 2023 @ 7 PM CDT

Where: The Downtown Convention Center

124 S. Buchanan St. Lafayette, LA 70501

What: The United States Department of Justice (DOJ) is conducting a civil “pattern or practice” investigation into the State of Louisiana and the Louisiana State Police (LSP).

Our investigation is examining:

- Allegations of use of excessive force by LSP Troopers;
- Allegations of discriminatory policing by LSP, including on the basis of race.

We want to hear from you about your experience with LSP & State Troopers. Please join us for this town hall event to learn more about our investigation and share your perspective.

Our investigation is separate and independent from any other investigations, so please join even if you already shared information with other organizations or investigators. Members of our team from DOJ’s Civil Rights Division in Washington, D.C. and from the U.S. Attorney’s Offices in the Middle, Eastern, and Western Districts of Louisiana will review the information you provide. We may also contact you to follow up if additional information is needed. Your voice is critical, and we appreciate any information you are willing to share about your experiences.
